Wood's name was signed to the orders filed by the committee in that State, but the witness explained that the initials "R. T." under the General's name meant that the actual signer was Robert Taylor, formally elected as agent for the General in Indiana.

Mr. Burt said $10,000 had been spent in Indiana, but explained other testimony on the State expenditures by saying that unpaid bills would bring the Indiana total to $68,000.

"In order to carry out your work in a business-like way, Chairman Kenyon observed, 'your committee found it necessary to have printed a blank form, headed 'Requests for Funds.'"

Chairman Kenyon turned to a bound receipt book. "Received from William Loeb, March 18, 1920, $25,000," he read. The witness said he was not informed. Mr. Loeb has been mentioned in previous testimony as having transmitted $25,000 from a Wood committee in New York.

Mrs. Adams said she didn't like the idea of being second lady of the land. "I much prefer home life to public life and I hate to see our happiness disturbed," she said.

"I am for prohibition, woman suffrage and for the establishment of a National court of industrial relations," said Mr. Adams, who belongs to the Massachusetts family that has furnished two Presidents.

Mr. Adams is a strategist. He sent the National Committee two boxes of apples to munch during contest hearings.

DOG BITES FOUR CHILDREN.

Two-Year-Old Among Victims in Bath Beach District.

At a little after noon the dog encountered William Murphy, two years old, of No. 1729 74th Street, son of a city fireman, with his father in front of the Bath Beach Police station. The dog was bitten on the leg.

In their search of the neighborhood for the dog, policemen found that the same animal had bitten three other children, six years old, of No. 42 74th Street; Victor Dorman, six years old, of No. 184 25th Street, and Martin Gruber, five years old, of 17th Street and Crogan Avenue.

WOMEN RIVALRIES CAUSE TROUBLE FOR REPUBLICANS

One Faction Demands Dual Control of Party With Parallel Organizations.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The National Committee's sub-committee to consider the part women are to play in the government of the Republican Party held a session today, but failed to reach definite conclusions. Victory Hoints, of Cincinnati, Mid-West Regional Director for the National Committee, was commissioned to present certain views to leading Republican women and to advise the sub-committee so that a definite plan may be recommended to the full National Committee next Monday.

The committee, in confronted with the task of harmonizing the views of two schools of thought among the women. One asks dual control of the party with parallel organizations of men and women. The other says that "adequate representation of the women on the governing bodies of the party" would be wiser.

A meeting of women has been called for Sunday afternoon. About 300 are expected to take part in the deliberations.

The sub-committee which met this morning consists of Coleman du Pont, Delaware; Rudolph Hynicka, Ohio; John T. Adams, Iowa; R. B. Howell, Nebraska; and Ralph E. Williams, Oregon.

by Fried, the police cite the following item:

Rare Scotch whiskey... $3 a quart. His method, the police say, was to pour the whiskey into a large screw top can. He then re-filled the bottles with water and placed them back in stock.

WINE THEFT DISCOVERED AT DINNER PARTY.

A fortnight ago, the police say, Mr. Fish gave a dinner. He sent his butler to bring up some whiskey and wines. The butler returned with an ample number of bottles, pulled the cork and filled the glasses. The first glass clearly indicated that the drinks were lacking in "kick" and an investigation followed with the discovery that the entire stock had been rifled.

When Midler was placed in the lineup today, Inspector Gray recognized him as a man brought before the Magistrate's Court in 1920 on a burglary charge. According to the Inspector, he was freed for lack of evidence.

He was sentenced in 1924 by a Hartford, Conn., court for horse stealing and in 1922 was arrested by the Federal authorities charged with receiving stolen goods, the police said.

On him when he was searched was a money belt containing $1,000 in bills and $160 in gold.

According to Detective Smith, who arrested Midler, he found in Midler's possession two of the Fish bar pins, estimated in value at $3,000.

The detective told Magistrate Cobb, before whom Midler was arraigned in Essex Market Court today, that Fried claimed he had sold all the jewels except $4,000 worth to Midler and that Midler had paid him $650 for the total.

Magistrate Cobb set Midler's bail at $25,000 for examination Saturday. Except for the two bar pins none of the missing jewels have been recovered.

Fried, the police said, although only forty years old, has been sentenced to a total of twenty-eight and a half years in Eastern prisons. The sentences started in 1921 and were for terms varying from one to five years, until 1913, when he was sentenced to Sing Sing for seven years and six months. He was transferred to Dannemora and later released for good behavior. The convictions were all based on burglary and larceny charges.

FRIED SHOWED RECOMMENDATION FROM A BANKER.

Fried said to-day he obtained employment in the Fish home on the strength of two letters of recommendation which he presented to an employment agency. One was from G. H. Walters, a banker of No. 111 Broadway, for whom Fried said he worked in Little Silver, N. J., the banker's summer home. The other was from Martin Loonan, a member of the Prison Welfare League. The agency explained to-day that it did not know Mr. Loonan was connected with the Welfare League and on the strength of his recommendation was induced to assign Fried to the Fish home.

A new version of the capture of Fried yesterday came out of the east side, presumably from friends of Fried and Henry Horowitz. The latter was mortally wounded on April 23 after he had shot Detective Smith, who had arrested Fried, enabling him to escape. The story was that and 10,000 persons were at the railroad station when Senator and Mrs. Johnson's train arrived from Cleveland.

Senator Johnson will take complete charge of his campaign. He will confer with his managers and supporters following the reception and make permanent plans for the last days of the pre-convention fight. Johnson and Senator Borah will address a mass meeting here Monday night.

The Lowden plane seems to be coming down in a nerve racking tail spin that is thoroughly demoralizing to its supporters.

The combination of bores controlling the unscrupulous delegates that will constitute a majority in the convention are hoping that something terrible will happen to the Hiram Johnson promotion, which is the most formidable and dangerous of the dozen or so engaging the attention of the speculatively inclined.

The tip telegraphed from Wall Street that a dark horse would be chosen is interpreted to mean that "Wood" is going to drop both "Wood" and Harding and try to put over a nominee that will be least offensive to big business. The tip also carries with it the manifest inclination to "get Johnson," meaning that the Wall Street interests do not want the California Senator. Talking about getting rid of Johnson, however, is a lot easier than really getting rid of him.

WOULD LIKE TO GET RID OF JOHNSON.

He is the one man from whom the leaders fear reprisals. They are confident that Wood, Lowden, and in fact any of the aspirants can be chucked into the discard without serious consequences to themselves, but when it comes to Johnson they are apprehensive of the results. Naturally they would like to get rid of him in a peaceful way that will involve no disaster to the party and themselves. Covert and subtle predictions are advanced that the Senate Campaign Fund Committee will hook Johnson up with Hearst in the League of Nations fight and show his campaign has been financed with money raised to promote the cause of Irish freedom. So far these charges are veiled and based upon inferential. There is no availing evidence purely circumstantial and proof to support them.

Plans are developing which point to a demonstration intended to impress the delegates quite as hectic and entertaining as any provided by Theodore Roosevelt eight years ago. Some of the leaders fear the effects of such a reconnaissance in force, others assert it will cut any figure. They substantiate their statement with the statement that "this fight is too serious and cold blooded to be influenced by county fair stuff." They further declare the delegates will not be susceptible to efforts to stampede them from their convictions.

About the only men in Chicago who do not believe Wood is a good as licked is the General himself and an aggressive battery of supporters, headed by young Theodore Roosevelt, former War Secretary, Stimson, Senator Moses and Congressman Gould of New York. The General expresses the fullest confidence in his nomination. He does not seem to regard the extent of his underwritten campaign as serious. In an interview he repeated his statement that the direct primary system compelled expenditure of large sums of money.

Young Roosevelt boldly championed the cause of his deceased father's residuary political legate. "I am for Gen. Leonard Wood," he said, "and have been on his National Committee for six months. I believe him to be the right man for the country and the party. His promise for the future is based on that best guarantee, his achievements in the past. I have no second choice."

monument over the grave of his father. This he failed to do, fearing detection, it is said, and in anger at Fried friends of Horowitz told the police where to find him.

The police deny this story. They say two envelopes, torn into confetti-like pieces, were found in the Fish home. These were placed together after three days' steady work and gave the names of two of Fried's friends who were trailed for weeks by the police, eventually leading to the capture of Fried, who had gained employment under an assumed name.

NORTH CAROLINA 'LILY WHITES' GET CONVENTION SEATS

Negro Contestants Barred by the Republican National Committee.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Shortly after the Republican National Committee resumed to-day its consideration of delegate contests it was announced in the Sixth Tennessee District, Harry A. Luck of Nashville, had withdrawn his contest. J. C. R. McCall of Nashville, unopposed, was seated. He was claimed for Wood.

Jacob L. Babler of St. Louis, the Missouri National Committeeman who told the Senate Investigating Committee of receiving Lowden funds, arrived to-day and took his seat in the committee.

Lieut. Col. Roosevelt watched proceedings from the rostrum as an assistant to Secretary Miller.

The entire official seventeen delegates from North Carolina were seated by unanimous vote of the committee. The official delegates are instructed for Judge J. C. Pritchard of North Carolina.

The contest was disposed of with the hearing of only the side of the contesting delegates. Their admission that the state convention which chose them had no official status, caused the committee to throw out their claim.

The official delegation are white while the contestants were negroes.

150,000 WANT SEATS AT G. O. P. CONVENTION

Women Show Interest in Politics by Unprecedented Demand for Tickets.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The added interest of women in politics is responsible for the unusual demand for tickets to the Republican National Convention this year, according to Chairman Will H. Hays of the National Committee, who said to-day he had received 150,000 requests for the 17,889 seats. More than 1,100 applications for the 278 tickets have been received.

"The requests from women for tickets are unprecedented," Mr. Hays said. "There are more than ten applications for every ticket."

It was announced that the tickets will be distributed Saturday.

FIRST DEAD IN ARMY OF OCCUPATION HERE

The first bodies of American soldiers who died with the Army of Occupation in hospitals in France, arrived in Hoboken to-day on the Army transport Nanamond. There were 209 bodies on board. None was killed in battle, but some died from wounds, the officials stated.

No information was given to the public as to the names of the dead, in accordance with a new ruling. Families of the boys will be notified, and if they wish to make the matter public they may do so.

There were also six strayways, two destitute soldiers, some soldiers' wives and children and forty casual officers on the transport.

WIFE COUNTERS WITH CROSS SUIT

Mrs. Theodore Nason of Brooklyn, Asks $50 a Week Alimony and $1,000 for Lawyer.

Supreme Court Justice Fawcett in Brooklyn today reserved decision on Mrs. Jessie Nason, twenty-five, application for $50 a week alimony and $1,000 counsel fee to defend Theodore Nason's action for a divorce. Mrs. Nason also entered a counter action for separation.

Nason, who inherited a quarter interest in a factory owned by the late Morris Nason, charges that his wife's extravagance has made it impossible for him to save a cent. She had often told him, he said, "I never loved me, but she did love Jim Minor." Minor, he said, is an sweetheart of long ago and lives in Hartford, Conn. Last Christmas, he said, she received five $100 bills from an admirer.

A supplementary affidavit stated Mrs. Nason had expressed willingness to give up their two children to the father if Minor would marry her.

$10,000,000 FOR HOSPITALS.

Measure Providing for Five to Be Used by Veterans Is Reported.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Construction of five hospitals, costing $10,000,000 for use by veterans of the World War is authorized in a bill reported unanimously to-day by the House Buildings Committee.

The measure specifies in a general way the location of the hospitals as follows: One in the region of the Central Atlantic Coast States, one on the Great Lakes, one in the North Pacific Coast States, one in the Rocky Mountain States and one in Southern California.

Irish Stayaway Boy Must Go Back. After many weeks of waiting at the threshold of the country, eager for a chance to get in and find his brother who, he said, was a policeman on the New York force, Tommie O'Halloran, the stayaway Irish boy, must go back to County Kerry on Saturday. The immigration authorities in Washington so ordered, and their instructions were served at Ellis Island to-day. The most careful search failed to find the policeman.

Rumely Trial Postponed.

The defendants in the Rumely trial moved to-day for a mistrial on the ground that Samuel Untermyer of counsel for defendants Kaufmann and Lindheim was ill and unable to proceed with the case. Judge Grubb granted the motion, and by consent of counsel the trial was adjourned to the first Monday of next week.

WESTERN WOMEN READY TO PICKET G. O. P. CONVENTION

Suffragists to War on Republicans for Failure of Amendment in Delaware.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The Suffragists are on the war path, and will descend upon the Republican convention at Chicago 5,000 strong. They are indignant over the failure of the "Republican Legislature of Delaware" to ratify the Suffrage Amendment. Miss Alice Paul, Chairman of the National Woman's Party, has called for a muster of her forces at Chicago.

"Immediately upon the announcement of defeat of the Suffrage Amendment by the Delaware Legislature," Florence Brewer Boeckel, National Press Chairman of the Woman's Party, stated, "five thousand appeals were sent to Suffragists in the States surrounding Chicago, asking them to take part in a demonstration of protest at the Republican convention or to contribute to its expense." The appeal in part reads:

"Will you join us June 8 at the Republican Convention in Chicago in a demonstration of protest against Republican action in holding up ratification in the one State needed? The demonstration probably will take the form of a line of women in front of the Convention Hall with banners of protest against the opposition of the Republicans."

"If a host of women voice the disapproval they feel, the Republican Party can hardly continue its present course."

Women from many Western States wired here to-day that they would join the picket line and add their presence and voices to the protests at Chicago next week.

MERCHANTS ASK $5,000,000 FUND TO KEEP PORT OPEN

stage passed through non-union hands or not.

The letter states that the committee intends to go ahead with its work regardless of the attitude of the striking longshoremen and other employees of the coastwise shipping lines and the sympathetic efforts of teamsters. The purpose is stated to be to "keep the channels of commerce free from all obstructions."

It is announced that in view of the report of Frederick J. Koster on the way San Francisco handled a similar situation, the committee has broadened the scope of its plans, and wants citizens to subscribe as largely as they can, sending subscriptions to Lewis E. Pierson as Treasurer.

T. V. O'Connor, President of the International Longshoremen's Association, said he hoped the men would vote to-morrow night to go back to work. It is admitted that the men have not thus far suffered the usual hardships of a strike, for the striking coastwise men have been working on the deep water piers and drawing pay just as if they had not struck at all even better pay, in fact. But O'Connor pointed out that this has thrown most of the regular deep water men out of work and that they are growing impatient to get their jobs back.

O'Connor hopes men will RETURN TO WORK.

O'Connor has ordered the lighter captains to take a vote to-day on going back to work, and he hopes they will decide to do so. The deep water union have also been advised to "carry out their agreements" with the transatlantic lines, which is interpreted to mean that the deep water men should insist on handling their own jobs and ousting the coastwise strikers.

There were 1,500 strikers last night at the meeting at St. Veronica's Hall to hear the message of Governor Smith, which urged them to go back to work and postpone their wage demands until the companies increase their revenues by an increase of freight rates.

The Governor offered to go before the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington and ask for the freight rate increase.

CHAMBER ADOPTS POLICIES.

Against Recognizing Soviet—for Freight Increases.

The New York State Chamber of Commerce unanimously passed a resolution urging the United States Government not to recognize the present Soviet Government of Russia.

The Chamber favored unanimously an increase in railroad freight rates sufficient to provide a six per cent. return on the value of the properties. Another resolution adopted favors modification "in special cases" of the provision requiring 100 per cent. American ownership in coastwise shipping companies.

A memorial tribute to the late Levi P. Morton was also adopted.

Landlord Held On Cold Water Charge.

Benjamin Kraft, landlord of the apartment at No. 214 Prospect Avenue, was held in $500 for Special Sessions by Magistrate McQuinn in West Farms Court to-day for failing to give his tenants hot water. Mrs. Sadie Samowitz made the complaint and Probation Officer Carroll, sent to the house by the Magistrate, reported that one day he found the water only lukewarm and another time cold.

GOVERNOR'S ISLAND HAS CELEBRATION

Tercentenary of Pilgrims' Landing Observed With Lawn Fete and Athletics.

Governor's Island is celebrating with garden party and lawn fete this afternoon the 300th anniversary of the Landing of the Pilgrims, the Mayflower Compact, and the First American Legislative Assembly in Virginia. John A. Stewart, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Suburban Institute, who has charge of the Tercentenary Celebration, acted as Chairman of the day. Suburban is the institution which has in charge the upkeep of the ancestral home of George Washington in England.

Among those present are Mrs. E. H. Harriman, Charles Evans Hughes, Sir John Foster Fraser, Rear Admiral Bradley Fiske and Mr. and Mrs. James Speyer. Col. Williams Waigel, Chief of Staff, Department of the Coast, delivered the address of welcome and Alton R. Parker the historical address. Then there was an Army Field Day. Capt. Van Vleet, U. S. A. was to meet Kumagata, the Japanese champion, at tennis, and then double with Kumagata in a match with Frank and Fred Anderson. There was also a golf and aviation exhibitions. A dance will be held tonight in the new Corbin Hall and Library.

STOREY QUESTIONED ON "MYSTERY GIRL"

Attorney on Trial in Stolen Bond Case Admits Attention to Dancer's Wife.

The identity of the mysterious young woman who for two days has been haunting the halls of General Sessions Court, where Frank D. Storey, attorney of No. 55 Chambers Street, accused of receiving $60,000 worth of stolen bonds has been on trial, was hinted at to-day when Assistant District Attorney Alfred Talley questioned Storey regarding his domestic life.

Storey said his first wife, whom he had married in Cairo, Egypt, had divorced him, and that at the time of his arrest at the Hotel Commodore, he was with a young woman known as Agnes Hogan, wife of a dancer, Abraham Hogan. Storey admitted he had paid liberally for the apartment of Mrs. Hogan at the Hotel San Remo, and had visited her frequently there, registering as "A. Hogan," and added, "I intend to marry her—her marriage has been annulled because she was under age when she was married."

Storey told of meeting Richard H. Lane, an ex-convict, at the Commodore and later of being detained by Detective Britton as "Mr. Wilson of Philadelphia," a bond broker. His arrest followed.

Much will depend upon the choice of each national convention. Maybe the friends of Senator Johnson are disappointed and think money beat them, they will insist on pursuing the trail no matter what effect it has on Republican chances. On the other hand, Charles E. Hoar and others repeatedly hinted at large sums of money gathered by the Democrats for the coming campaign and the opportunity will not be lost to keep the controversy in the public prints to the hope of influencing the electorate next autumn.

The investigations may check expenditures for illegal or doubtful purposes, but the high cost of campaigning is fully realized at both Democratic and Republican headquarters, so that no matter how conservative the leaders may be they probably will find in the end that a combined have spent more to elect a President of the United States in 1920 than in any other year in the history of American politics.

ACTOR FOUND DEAD IN HOTEL AREAWAY

Clifton Crawford Apparently Had Fallen Five Stories From His Room in London.

LONDON, June 3.—Clifton Crawford, an actor, known on both sides of the Atlantic, was found dead at 6 o'clock this morning in an areaway of the hotel on Leicester Square at which he was stopping, having fallen five stories from the window of his room.

The actor arrived here from the United States Tuesday to fill a theatrical engagement. He appeared to be suffering from the effects of sea sickness and was under a doctor's care on the day of his arrival. Last evening, however, he seemed to have fully recovered and to be in the best of spirits. He was occupying a room by himself, to which he retired at 9 o'clock last night.

FRANCO-AMERICAN TRADE IS DOUBLED

Huge Increase Attributed in Paris to Recent Rise in Value of the Franc.

PARIS, June 3 (Associated Press).—There has been a 100 per cent. increase in the number of vessels and the amount of cargo brought to French ports by the United States Shipping Board during the last month, the correspondent was informed to-day.

This marked change in the situation was attributed by officials to improvement in the value of the franc, which France is taking advantage of.

The cargoes brought to France consisted largely of coal, cotton and sugar, but there were also big shipments of many staple articles. There was a shipment of locomotives and one of portable houses for the devastated areas.

THIRD OF VERA CRUZ WILL BE DESTROYED

City Authorities Take Drastic Measures to End Plague, It Is Reported.

MEXICO CITY, June 3 (Associated Press).—One-third of the houses of Vera Cruz will be burned because of the bubonic plague infection, it has been decided by the citizens of that city, according to the Excelsior to-day.

State authorities at Vera Cruz have accepted the offer of the United States Government to send a sanitary detachment and supplies to that city to combat the bubonic plague, says a despatch to the Excelsior.

Ships are allowed to enter the port, but rigid quarantine regulations are enforced. The number of houses in contact with the plague is burned in the street. In some furniture burned yesterday there was a bomb concealed, which exploded, killing one man.

$25,000,000 TO BE SPENT THIS YEAR ON PRESIDENCY

States have laws which limit the expenditures in State campaigns. But the laxity of the more populous States where the big electoral votes come from enables the politician to lav his plans as that he does not come under the jurisdiction of the Federal Government.

But if anybody supposes that all this is going to happen without some spectacular intervention such as came in the primary campaigns, he is very much mistaken. The Senate committee may not have made up its mind as to what it will do during the summer, but it seems certain that as soon as the conventions have chosen their men and an extra session of Congress is called there will be pressure to continue the investigation.

INVESTIGATING KNIFE CAN CUT BOTH WAYS.

Some Republicans have said it would furnish a splendid opportunity to investigate the Democratic nominee inasmuch as too much publicity has already been given the financial efforts of the various Republican aspirants. The chances are others will see the Democratic nominee or if he resigns to make the campaign and another Attorney General will be appointed. The Presidential nomination of the Democrats will do a little investigation too.

What appears doubtful at the present moment is whether the two
